If you give a report
at the end of the day,
you might just forget
what you wanted to say.

If this happens to you,
it might make you more shy.
You might even think
it's a good time to cry!

But your teacher can help
you decide what to do,
and what you decide
will be just right for you.

You could look at your notes.
You could smile and then
if you want to try,
just start over again.

If you make a mistake,
you can think of a way
to not get upset.
You can have a good day.

Just admit what you did.
You could say, "I forgot."
Your teacher won't get mad.
She likes you a lot.

These charts list the skills and new Just Remember words used in each book. New CSO words are in bold.
